

Consumption Advisories for Galveston Bay Area ¹
Area	Title	Date Issued	Species Affected	Current Status	Chemical of Concern	Area Boundaries	Recommendation
Houston Ship Channel and Lower San Jacinto ²	ADV-20	10/9/2001	All Fish	In effect	Dioxin and PCBs	Upstream of the Lynchburg Ferry Crossing	Less than one 8-oz serving per month; None for women of child-bearing age and children
Upper Galveston Bay ²	ADV-3	9/19/1990	Catfish; Blue Crab	In effect, modified	Dioxin	North of a line drawn from Red Bluff Point to Five Mile Cut Marker to Houston Point	Less than one 8-oz serving per month; None for women of child-bearing age and children
	ADV-28	1/27/2005	Spotted Seatrout	Expanded	PCBs	North of a line drawn from Red Bluff Point to Five Mile Cut Marker to Houston Point	Less than one 8-oz serving per month; None for women of child-bearing age and children
Entire Galveston Bay	ADV-35	7/8/2008	Catfish; Spotted Seatrout	In effect	Dioxin and PCBs	Entire Galveston Bay system	Less than one 8-oz serving per month; None for women of child-bearing age and children

Notes:

1) This table does not include advisories in place for Clear Creek.

2) Areas including the lower San Jacinto river extend upstream to State Highway 90.